

Tutor: Lynda Lumb		Course: Permaculture Day 1		Venue: CCEC
Session	Content	Objectives (learners should be able to:)	Teaching and Learning Strategies	Assessment Method	Skills. Essential	ESDGC	Welsh
1.	Welcome (bi-lingual) Introductions and overview of course. Explanation of difficult terms	Feel more comfortable with each other and understand what to expect. Inclusion of partially sighted learner	Paired introductions Presentation	Observation	Yes		Yes
2.	Guidelines for working together and hopes for the course	Contribute to and understand protocol of session and outline what they need to gain	Wordstorming and discussion	Observation	Yes
3.	What is Permaculture and why do we need it	Have basic understanding of subject	Presentation	Discussion and Question and answer		Yes
4.	Permaculture Ethics	Understand the ethics at the centre of Permaculture	Wordstorming and discussion	Peer assessment and Q & A		Yes
5.	The Parable of the Chicken	Understanding symbiotic relationships and multi functions	Wordstorming and discussion	Peer assessment and Q & A		Yes

Tutor: Lynda Lumb		Course: Permaculture Day 1		Venue: CCEC
Session	Content	Objectives (learners should be able to:)	Teaching and Learning Strategies	Assessment Method	Skills. Essential	ESDGC	Welsh
6.	Video - Bill Mollinson - Global Gardening	Have an overview of the spread of Permaculture and an understanding of its appeal	Video and discussion	Q & A		Yes
7.	Permaculture Principles	Have a basic knowledge of the principles underlying Permaculture	Group work and presentation to whole group	Observation and peer assessment		Yes
8.	Further information	Have an understanding of resources available, contacts and bi-lingual information	Presentation	Observation	Yes	Yes	Yes
9.	Recap and Evaluation	Check learning and evaluate day	Q & A, evaluation and wordstorming	Observation
10.	Information for second day	Understand what they need and where to go	Presentation and Q & A	Observation			